perhaps part of the reason for increased emphasis on equally valuable traits of lower heritability has been the genetic progress made in milk production bottom line: don’t buy from apple—look at all these people whose ipods aren’t working in this section, jessica gives a detailed overview of each step, and then dives into the specifics in a perfect chronological order.

when he knocked, i had to unlock the door rather than tell him to come on in the way i usually do, because i forgot i’d locked it after ana left but sometimes it is agonising with how much it hurts and i don’t know what to do
