instead of addressing that part of the 10 who are refused health care, everybody’s health insurance is thrown into the mix. to me, that doesn’t make sense i’ve been at my wits end trying, because i know it’s better for him.

said i don’t think overbooking is to blame unless what you mean by that is patients demanding 30 minutes

this is where her idea became a reality