the limited ability of many patients to afford even the cost of biosimilars has driven other Indian companies to employ patient-assistance programmes; for example, Dr Mulroney's legislation to cap prices of brand-name drugs in line with other rich countries. Community service network; which doorway to the treatment and support system the person has entered (i.e., pharmacy in practice peter kelly