it reportedly has a camera on each corner of the phone that can detect the user's head and eye movement, while filtering out movement by surrounding people.

listed by city, each section includes beach information, accommodations, restaurants, local sightseeing tips from actual locals, seasonal festivals.

there is also a claim (more research is needed) that lecithin helps to support the healthy development of breast cells and glandular functioning.

lutchuensis samples identified plant genes that may contribute to c...